

Engelslied in einem chinesischen Lobpreisgottesdienst

Jeder darf und sollte diese Botschaft und die Echtheit dieses Liedes selber prüfen. Ob der englische Text vom chinesischen korrekt übersetzt wurde, kann ich nicht beweisen. Doch als ich das Lied das erste Mal hörte, war ich sofort innerlich berührt. Wenn man das Lied mit Kopfhörer oder einen guten Anlage abspielt, merkt man, wie perfekt es gesungen ist. Auch der Inhalt des Liedes gibt doch auch einen starken Hinweis, dass es sich um eine Botschaft von Gott handelt. A. Dreier

Der ausführliche englische Originaltext dazu steht weiter unten, kurz zusammengefasst: Aus Angst eingesperrt zu werden, trafen sich Gläubige in Hauskirchen, oft bei Kerzenlicht. 1995, bei einem Treffen in Shandong, sang jeder „im Geist“ zusammen (1. Korinther 14:15) nicht in ihrer eigenen Sprache. Alle sangen verschiedene Worte. Jemand nahm das Treffen auf. Als sie die Kassette zurückspielten, waren sie geschockt! Was sie hörten, war nicht, was dort gesungen wurde – sondern der Gesang von Engeln, die in Mandarin singen – ein Lied, das nie zuvor gehört wurde, und mit einer musikalischen Begleitung, welche nicht dort war!

Hier der prophetische Text den die Engel 1995 in Shandong sangen:

Das Ende ist nahe: Rette Seelen.

- 1. Die Zeit wird immer kritischer.
Es gibt mehr und mehr Erdbeben.
Die Situation wird immer unheimlicher.
Die Menschen kämpfen gegeneinander, Nation gegen Nation.
Die Katastrophen werden immer heftiger.
- 2. Die ganze Umwelt verschlechtert sich.
Die Katastrophen werden immer heftiger.
Das Herz der Menschen ist böse, und sie beten den wahren Gott nicht an.
Die Katastrophen werden immer heftiger.
- 3. Fluten und Trockenheit werden immer häufiger.
Es gibt mehr und mehr Homosexualität und häufiger unheilbare Krankheiten.
Die Katastrophen werden immer heftiger.
- 4. Das Klima wird mehr und mehr abnormal.
Die Erde ist mehr und mehr ruhelos.
Der Himmel ist aufgebrochen. Die Atmosphäre ist deformiert.
Die Katastrophen werden immer heftiger.

Chor:

Das Ende ist nahe Die Offenbarung der Liebe ist offensichtlich.
Steh auf, steh auf, rette Seelen.
Das Ende ist nahe.
Stehe auf, stehe auf, rette Seelen.

The Shandong Miracle angel song in a rural Chinese worship service!

From: "Choices for Living" - Jim Bramlett

In the past few years I have been able to acquire tape recordings of what appears to be angels singing, at four different locations, one in China and three in the U.S. The tapes were buried in storage boxes until recently, when I decided to search for them and make them available on my Web site, with the volunteer help of my Webmaster friend, Mike Vest. This has now been done, and they are available at the links below. Each link offers the best possible explanation of the circumstances. The audio quality is sometimes very poor but it is the best we can do. For example, the Chinese recording was done with a cheap recorder in a home church in a small Chinese village. It is very weak, but we are blessed to have what we have. Personally, I find all of them electrifying, and inspiring! By the way, other examples of angels being heard, and even seen visibly, at other churches have been reported to me from time to time. Enjoy, and join the angels in praise to our great and wonderful Creator and Savior!

Encounter # 1: Angels singing in a Maryland church (MP3)

Feb. 6, 1996, recording at the Greater Grace World Outreach Church in Baltimore, Md

The recording came from a church service in Baltimore, Maryland. It was given to me by a very reliable pastor friend who is a part of that church and who vouches for its authenticity. On the recording, a lady is playing the piano and leading in spontaneous worship. Gradually, you are able to hear accompanying voices in the background -- beautiful voices of beings who were not in the service. There seems to be no doubt they are angelic voices. I have the full tape with the pastor discussing the situation with the congregation, and about 25 people gave testimony to hearing the voices. They were all in awe at what had happened.

In May, 1995 I received this most electrifying report from a friend who for several years has been the leader of a ministry to China. To protect him and his contacts in China, I must not reveal his name. But for you to better understand his credibility, let me explain that I have known him for many years. He is a graduate of a prestigious theological seminary and is a former pastor. My friend is an intelligent and balanced servant of God. He is not given to sensationalism. The following is a summary of his recent report to me.

The whole province of Shandong, in eastern China (population: 57 million), was in the midst of a sweeping revival. For fear of arrest, believers meet secretly in house churches, often by candlelight. At a 1995 meeting in Shandong, everyone was singing "in the Spirit" together (1 Corinthians 14:15), not in their own language, but "as the Spirit gave them utterance," all in harmony but all singing different words. Someone audiotaped the meeting. Later, when they played back the cassette, they were shocked! What they heard was not what had happened there at all -- but the sound of angels singing in Mandarin -- a song they had never heard before, and with a musical accompaniment that had not been there!!! When my friend first heard the tape, before anyone told him what it was, he exclaimed, "Those are angels!!" Actually, there was no other explanation.

Below are the actual translated words sung by the angels! Note that the words express ideas with which these rural Chinese peasants were not familiar. (Original Chinese version follows).

"The End is Near: Rescue Souls"

1. The famine is becoming more and more critical.

There are more and more earthquakes.

The situation is becoming more and more sinister.

People are fighting against each other, nation against nation.

Disasters are more and more severe.

2. The whole environment is deteriorating.

Disasters are more and more severe.

People's hearts are wicked, and they do not worship the true God.

Disasters are more and more severe.

3. Floods and droughts are more and more frequent.

There is more and more homosexuality and incurable diseases.

Disasters are more and more severe.

4. The climates are becoming more and more abnormal.

The earth is more and more restless. (ruhelos)

The skies have been broken. The atmosphere is distorted.

Disasters are more and more severe.

Chorus:

The end is near. The revelation of love has been manifested.

Rise up, rise up, rescue souls.

The end is near.

Rise up, rise up, rescue souls.

The above English words were translated from the original Chinese below by two native Chinese Christians in Beijing who have personal knowledge of the church and the pastor where the incident happened:
